

Daily Racing Form

VOL. IV. NO. 243.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

IMP'S DASH STAKES.

The Dash Stakes, $1,000 added; seven furlongs for 3-year-olds and upwards, worth to the winner $1,085, to the second $200, to the third $100, was the feature at Hawthorne yesterday. It was a penalty and allowance race, five pounds below the scale and was won by Imp, who carried one pound less than weight for age. May W. was within two lengths of Imp at the finish and a like distance behind her was Lady Ellerslie, third. All of the starters except Traverser had weight off, i. e., Lady Ellerslie, 17; May W., 17; Imp, 1, and Belle of Memphis, 17. Traverser carried three pounds overweight for age, he having the extreme penalty (eight pounds) for winning valuable stakes in California. The day was a perfect one for racing and the track was dry but not fast. The attendance was above the average.

Imp opened at 3 to 5, Belle of Memphis 4 to 1, May W. 5 to 1, Traverser 15 to 1, Lady Ellerslie 20 to 1. Mr. Bradley backed his great three-year-old liberally. Tony Licalzi scratched Donna Rita and substituted Lady Ellerslie. J. Carroll at one stage laid $30 against $100 Imp a place, and the 3 to 5 was posted everywhere at post time. The public backed the favorite heavily, the remark being "They can not beat her." Mr. Bruen was unfortunate, as Belle of Memphis whirled as the gate went up and was left standing still. Traverser delayed the start, refusing to join the horses, and finally got off three open lengths behind the others. May W. broke quickest, but did not long retain the lead. Traverser led at the end of the first half, Imp second, lapped on, the others within two lengths, Traverser stopping to nothing in the homestretch. Imp was winning handily at the final eighth, Lady Ellerslie chasing her, when Holden, who had "placed" May W., came with a rush and forced Rutter on the favorite to hunch along. "May W. wins!" was the cry, but at the finish Imp was drawing away. Traverser finished three lengths back of Lady Ellerslie.

Seventeen ordinary selling platers entered to be sold each for $200 contested the first race. Billy Fischer, a horse said to have not started before this year, was a "hot one" and was backed from 20 down to 8 to 1. "Virginia" Bradley's Second Chance was knocked from 60 down to 20 to 1, and flattered his supporters when at the last eighth he was close to C. H. Whelan. Billy Fischer, however, did nothing. Aunt Mary was always the favorite and to a fair start, after considerable delay, she took command and opened a big gap on the upper turn and into the homestretch. Soon she showed a disposition to jump the outside fence, and as Beauchamp was unable to control her her chance was destroyed before the betting ring was reached. C. H. Whelan, always second, now took the lead and won, whipped out from the last sixteenth post, from Treeby who was hurried by Sugar Cane.

Espionage improved wonderfully over her last race, and, getting off in front for the second race, was aided by a bumping match behind, which destroyed the chances of Jolly Rose (he was lengths behind all others except Belle rounding the upper turn) and Survivor. Bloss had the favorite "in his lap" all the way, and when Harry Nutter came to her at the last sixteenth she drew away and won as she pleased from Survivor, who ran a remarkable race and nipped Harry Nutter for the place. Our Nellie was second up the backstretch and finished well up fourth. Sea Lion looked dangerous the first half, but quit and finished fifth, several lengths back of Our Nellie.

The crowd warmed up and speculation was brisk on the fourth race, about which there were nearly as many tips as there were starters. Uarda was always the favorite and she would have won but for interference on the first turn. It appears that latter day jockeys are mostly bred from drivers of vans and beer wagons, so commonly seen cutting off trolley and cable cars, and therefore they cannot be blamed for getting in the way. The start was delayed because of the bad actions of Lena, who finally was placed by the starter on the outside rail where there was plenty of room. When the field was dispatched Hampden was in the rear as also Tom Calvert. The latter stayed where he was. Around into the backstretch Moncreith, Marcato, Lena was the order of the leaders. Marcato soon took command but was dispossessed by Babieca. (Wonderful! this horse was beaten off at his last start) who led to the last eighth post. Moncreith held second position at the turn for home, but died coming home (he has always been considered a stretch runner). Lena was third and Hampden fourth. A rally at this spot, where Babieca disappeared, showed Lena in front and apparently winning, when from the rear came Prince Blazes and Uarda "racing over horses" and they ran first and second in a driving finish, Lena third.

A sensation was furnished by W. B. Sink when his colors came home first on Alvarado II., who finished alone in the hurdle race. Once the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase was won by a comparatively untried horse, Voluptuary, and ever since it has been the fashion to send a fast horse over the hurdles, taking a chance that he will jump, in which event he must beat the cattle commonly known as hurdle horses. So here the tip was that if Alvarado II. got safely over the first hurdle he would win. His price was as long as 8 to 1, but he went to the post at 4 to 1. The smoke held in by the lowering clouds threatened darkness, and Judge Rees allowed less time than usual for bookmaking, and as the horses delayed the start rang the bell which means "turn 'em loose." Obediently Bruen let go and the horses passed the stand well together with the exception of Alvarado II., who was six lengths behind all the others. Corrigan's Jezebel, Marble and Proverb raced away from the others. Uncle Jim was fourth at the middle of the backstretch. Colors could not be distinguished, but soon a horse ran past all the others. This was Alvarado II., and the race was over. Proverb was second, several lengths away, Uncle Jim two lengths behind him, Marble well up, and the others beaten off.

Although the last race was run at 5:05 it was so dark that from the time the horses left the far turn until they struck the straight only a faint moving shadow of the bunch could be seen. Silver Set led away from the post but soon Loyalotta went on and won all the way, finishing alone, pulling up, by five lengths from Warren Point, second, he beating Teeta May an open length. Agitator was left standing still at the post.

There were twenty regular and two field books.

The entry of Agitator, Belle of Memphis and Lena will be refused hereafter.

J. McDonald has been suspended for the meeting for his ride on Wilson Tuesday.

Edward Corrigan's injuries are much more serious than was at first supposed. Yesterday all visitors were denied admittance, as the injured man is apt to talk and this brings on a spell of coughing, detrimental to the healing of the sore chest.

All of George Rose's book clerks leave Chicago for San Francisco one week from Sunday next, but the bookmaker will stay here. His "racing family" is up to the full capacity of a sleeping car, there being twelve clerks and their families.

WHAT ER LOU AND FOUND.

The opportunity to purchase such proved good racehorses as John Huffman will send under the auctioneer's hammer at Hawthorne next Saturday is not often presented to turfmen. What er Lou has conclusively demonstrated this year that he is in the first flight of the western handicap division. He has all the requisites of a good racehorse, being fast, game, a good weight carrier and at home on either a fast or a heavy track.

What er Lou's first start this year was in the Inaugural Handicap at St. Louis, which he won over a slow track in 1:45, beating Harry Duke, Dr. Sheppard, Fervor, The Efector, Buckvidere, Timemaker and four others. His next essay was in the Club Members' Handicap over the same track, in which he defeated Lieber Karl, Elusive, Counter Tenor and Our Chance, doing the mile and a quarter in 2:08. In the Laurel Stake, St. Louis, he was a good third to Ed Farrell and Gibraltar, six furlongs, in the fast time of 1:13. He then was next started in the Oakwood Handicap at Washington Park, for which Fervor beat him a head in such startling time as 1:54 for nine furlongs. Imp, Timemaker, Judge Denny and Bannockburn being behind the pair.

It was truly a grand race. What er Lou carried 108 to Fervor's 103 pounds. His next race was still more remarkable, it being in the Great Western Handicap, in which he ran second to Goodrich at a mile and a half, done in the unprecedented time of 2:30. Morte Fouse, then in rare form, Bing Binger and Candelaria were the other starters. It was a race that will probably be unmatched for years to come. The colt started in the Wheeler Handicap, won by Algol, but was pulled up because of the bursting of a big boil deep in his nostril, the occurrence leading to the report that he had burst a blood vessel, which was not true. Since then What er Lou has started in four races, of which he easily won three and was nosed out by Cherry Leaf in the other through his jockey's mistake.

Found is an extremely fast filly with light weight up. Horses that can run a mile in 1:40 or thereabouts are scarce articles, but Found can do it sure. At St. Louis she defeated Crocket, Gold Band and other fast ones seven furlongs in 1:27. At Washington Park she won at a mile in 1:40 "in a gallop." Later on at Harlem she beat Yuba Dam, Madrilene and others at a mile in 1:40. In the mud she is as good as the best. Her victories this year have been numerous and any condition of track or weather seem to suit her. Allowing for natural improvement, Found should be a great bread winner next year.

Dare II. is not as reliable as the foregoing pair and yet he is a very fast racehorse, as his mile in 1:41 over the comparatively slow Hawthorne track August 11 well showed. When he was a 2-year-old Dare II. was about as good as Algol, Ornament and Typhoon II. and is quite liable to yet return to his high class form of 1896. His recent running has been such as to suggest something of the sort.

Marzella has run so much over Chicago tracks that her rating as a racer is well established in the minds of local turf patrons. She is only a speedy selling plater, but one that has often won and no doubt will often do so again. She is worth a good chunk of anybody's money because rightly placed, she is sure to return it with good interest.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jake Holtman, who acted as Starter "Curly" Brown's assistant at the recent Newport meeting, will do the starting at Windsor next week. Dick Dwyer, during the cessation of racing at Harlem, is now handling the flag at Windsor, but he returns to the former track at the end of this week, and Holtman takes his place on the Canadian track.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

When Martimas won the Futurity W. B. Jennings, the owner of Biggonet, claimed the $2,000 as breeder of the winner. C. J. Enright also put in a claim for it, on the ground of being a partner of W. B. Jennings at the time. The stewards of the Jockey Club settled the question by dividing the money equally between the two claimants.—New York Commercial-Advertiser.

F. O. Hanlon, trustee of the Arthur Barrett fund for the benefit of the mother of the popular lightweight jockey who was killed at Sheephead Bay, has issued his final statement. The total forwarded by check to Mrs. John M. Barrett was $1,380.20. The Jockey Club paid $115 for transit of the body to Missouri and also $177.70 for burial expenses.

Found has won at 7-8 in 1:27, miles in 1:40 and 1:40. Dare II holds the St. Louis 1:16 miles record, 1:46, and has won at a mile in 1:41 recently. Marzella has a number of wins to her credit.

Start good. Won easily. Governor Budd was easily best and is a much improved horse. He fenced best and the soft going was in his favor. Trillion was short but ran well. Elcid ran his race. Equerry is best over a fast track. He ran badly. Trayella is a fair jumper for a green one. Widower had no chance through the field. He is a very bad jumper.

Scratched—Phoebe, 157; Rifer, 148.

Start good. Won driving. Momentum was lucky and liked the mud. Miss Miriam was the best, but could not concede seven pounds. Marito is improving and should give a good account of herself soon at a mile with light weight up. Orion ran like a very sore horse and stopped to a walk at the end. Takanassee is not in good form.

Winner—Ch. f. by Hanover—Fleur d'Or.

Start straggling. Won driving. Helen Thomas and Morning were both lucky at the start. Both finished on their own courage and in going they were supposed to dislike. They act like stayers and will do even better on a fast track. Leandro closed strong. Kirkwood came very fast after appearing to be badly beaten. Greatland stopped badly at the finish. Colonel Tenny and Flavius were badly handled.

Scratched—Gaze, 103; King's Pride, 92.

Helen Thomas, place, 5 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Morning, place, 15 to 1; show, 8 to 1. Leandro, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Favor—Virginity. Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce. The next three were fully as busy. C. H. Whelan had excellent racing luck. He was off well on his stride and always had a clear path. Ellis took the short route, too, and rode the horse well. Treeby, with the same luck, would have won. She was bumped and jostled on the far turn and made up a lot of ground the last quarter. Aunt Mary won't do at all. She showed a flight of speed, but stopped almost to a walk after going a half. She also tried to bolt on the stretch turn. Con Reagan ran a fair sort of race. It was a bad lot.

Scratched—Alvin W. 112. Overweights—Friskal, 5 pounds. C. H. Whelan, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Treeby, place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Sugar Cane, show, 5 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B—Sun Maid. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won mildly driven; second and third driving hard. Espionage was the best. She had her usual fine speed and Bloss took no chances. He got to the front as soon as possible and made every post a winning one, and had the race cinched before a quarter had been traversed. Survivor, considering the rough journey he had, ran a good race. He and Harry Nutter engaged in a bumping match in the stretch. It was impossible for Beauchamp to hold the latter straight. Our Nellie had some speed but Espionage raced her to pieces the first half. Capsicum ran a bad race. He evidently prefers mud. Jolly Roger was almost thrown over the fence at the start. This probably caused him to sulk. In the same mixup Harry Nutter was interfered with. Espionage caused the mixup.

Scratched—Phidias, 103. Overweights—Barrier, 5 pounds. Espionage, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 2. Survivor, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10. Harry Nutter, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Blk. f. by Wagner—Fondling. Post 2 minutes. Start good for all but Belle of Memphis. Won hand ridden; second driving hard. Imp was the best, but did not race as though she was in her best form. Still she was contending against very fast horses. She had first Traverser to contend with and later May W. The latter perhaps ran the best race. She was miserably ridden. Holden was shut off and interfered with on every turn and was obliged to come clear around on the stretch turn. The filly was closing strong and displayed great gameness. She is ready to win. Lady Ellerslie was kicked at the post by Traverser. She ran a good race. Traverser stopped almost to a walk at the finish. Belle of Memphis wheeled when the barrier went up. She absolutely refused to break.

Scratched—Dave Waldo, 100; Mary Black, 101; Hugh Penny, 114; Donna Rita, 102; Found, 109. Imp, place, 1 to 3. May W, place, even; show, 1 to 3. Lady Ellerslie, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Blazes—Bettie Prince. Post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving. The next five were driving just as hard. The first six were in a close bunch at the wire. Prince Blazes is a useful little horse. He showed himself to be as game as a pebble. From the head of the stretch home he galloped past the other horses as though they were stationary. Uarda also finished with a rattle. She was bumped and interfered with at the first turn and seemed to sulk. Lena was the cause of the delay. She got away well though and looked all over a winner at the head of the stretch. Moncreith had some early speed but was pinched off down the backstretch and dropped far out of it. He came again like a flash at the end. Hampden tired badly. So did Babieca. The latter had a fine turn of speed but was high in flesh and evidently not quite ready.

Scratched—Pitfall, 107; Vice Regal, 107; Ramona, 107; Idle Hour, 110; Molo, 103; Nemo, 101; Elidad, 101.

Overweights—Tom Calvert, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Amigo—Santa Margarita. Post 6 minutes. Start fair for all but Alvarado II, who was practically left. Won easily; the next two were driving. Alvarado II, fenced well and had speed to give away. It was a peculiar incident to see him win from where he got off. He was right at home in the jumping game. Proverb ran a good race under his heavy weight. Uncle Jim seemed to stop on the far turn but came again. Phil Becker showed a lot of speed and pulled up sound. He is a smooth jumper. Jezebel was raced to exhaustion the first part of it and stopped badly at the end. Marble had a little early speed and Idolater none at all.

Scratched—Teulada, 125; Colonel, 142; Master Fred, 160; Troil, 133; Arrezzo, 158.

Winner—Ch. f. by Loyalist—Cantolet. Post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Agitator. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth were driving to the limit. Loyaletta had a lot of speed. She raced Silver Set into submission the first half and was tiring rapidly herself at the end. Warren Point was gaining on the filly at every stride. He would perhaps have won had it been seven furlongs. It was a tight fit for third place. The race was run in the dark and it was almost impossible to see the horses when they were on the far turn.

Winner—B. g. by Bersan—Lutan.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. The winner was much the best in the going. He wheeled at the start, but caught the field and after racing Helen H. Gardner off her feet, came away without much trouble. Helen H. Gardner quit when Jamboree, who came very strong in the stretch, got to her. There were virtually only three horses in the race.
Scratched—McFarland II, 105; Rout, 105.
Overweights—Jamboree, 24 pounds.
The Doctor, place, 1 to 3. Jamboree, place, 2 to 1; show, even.

Scratched—Osmon, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by Deceiver—Miss Charmer.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. The Grinder stumbled in the stretch. But for that he would have won further off. Pretty Rosie was the next best. He is very speedy, but hard to get away from the post. The others are of little account and will have to seek easier game to get out of the maiden class. Dr. Graves, supposed to be a good thing, was always out-run. Rafaello came strong at the finish.
Scratched—Golden Edge, 100; Bob Salter, 110.
The Grinder, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Pretty Rosie, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Rafaello, show, even.
